

Potentially Inappropriate Treatment

INLAND SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA BIOETHICS CONSORTIUM MEETING

focused on non-beneficial treatment

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 10, 2019
10:00 AM – 2:00 PM

Session 1: Code Status and DNAR - Using Case Studies to Understand Potentially Inappropriate Treatment

Session 2: Discussing Goals of Therapy: Pro Tips of the Trade Roundtable Discussion

Grand Rounds: Going Down Fighting: Do Patients Have the Right to Experimental Therapies?

Session 3: Working Session Crafting a Common Set of Guidelines for Gastrostomy Tube Placement in Patients with Advanced Dementia

To register click here. Registration is FREE

Location: Loma Linda University
Wong Kerlee International Conference Center
11175 Campus St, Loma Linda, CA 92350

▶ ▶ ▶ Parking for all campus visitors is in a special parking lot on the corner of Shepardson Dr and Benton St. in Loma Linda. You will be shuttled over to the University Court Shuttle Stop where a sign will direct you to Wong Kerlee Conference Center. Upon entering the building go downstairs to B-level, Peterson Room.

Hosted by:

Loma Linda University Health Clinical Ethics Service and
Loma Linda University Center for Christian Bioethics
Questions? 909-558-4956 or bioethics@llu.edu