Featured Speaker

Robert Macauley MD, FAAP, FAAHPM

Cambia Health Foundation Endowed Chair in Pediatric Palliative Care
Oregon Health and Science University

As the director of the OHSU Doernbecher Bridges program, Dr. Macauley specializes in palliative care, which focuses on improving quality of life for kids facing life-limiting illness. He is one of only three hundred pediatricians in the United States board certified in palliative medicine. He values the chance to help children and their families work through some of the most difficult situations anyone can ever face.
