

Adventism and Political Activism:

A Symposium on the History of Adventist Social and Political Engagement

April 12, 2025
3 p.m.

Centennial Complex
Damazo Amphitheater
24760 Stewart Street
Loma Linda, CA 92350

This symposium features new research that challenges and deepens our understanding of Seventh-day Adventist history. From its radical abolitionist beginnings to the overlooked influence of Adventist women in 19th-century Christian activism, we trace the church's evolution — including its shift toward fundamentalism and the effect this conservative turn had on social and political engagement.

For more information, call 909-558-7478
or email religion@llu.edu.

Symposium co-sponsored by Loma Linda University School of Religion,
Loma Linda University Humanities
Program and North American Division of Seventh-day Adventists

Kevin Burton,
Director of the Center for Adventist Research and Associate Professor at Andrews University

Moderator

Jeffrey Rosario,
Assistant Professor,
School of Religion,
Loma Linda University

Michel Lee,
Assistant Professor of History, Southern Adventist University

Michael Campbell,
Director of NAD Archives,
Statistics & Research

